

Gabriella Porcelli

Chief Legal & Compliance Officer and Head of Corporate Governance

Gabriella Porcelli has over 25 years of experience as a corporate lawyer, with a strong focus on corporate governance, compliance, IP & antitrust law, and corporate crime.

She holds a Law degree from Sapienza University of Rome, Italy, and was admitted to the Bar in Italy in 1991. She has completed several Management courses, including at INSEAD, and has lived and worked in the UK and the US.

Ms Porcelli started her career at Confcommercio, the Italian General Confederation of Enterprises and Professional Activities for the Trade sector. Following some years in private practice at renown Milan law firms, in 1994 she began working as Senior Corporate Counsel at ENI. She then served as Legal Affairs Associate Director for ten years at Pfizer.

In 2009 Gabriella Porcelli moved to Philip Morris International as Senior Counsel Italy, where she remained until 2018, and then served as General Counsel at Trans Adriatic Pipeline, a multi-billion-euro gas infrastructure project involving four different countries.

Ms Porcelli has also covered the role of Vice President at Valore D, an Italian association of companies that promotes gender equality and inclusion in the corporate environment, and is a non-executive director at Terna SpA, the Italian electricity Transmission System Operator, where she also chairs the Nomination Committee and is a member of the Remuneration Committee.

Her most recent position was at Fendi (LVMH Group), where she began in 2019 as General Counsel & Worldwide IP, Ethics, Compliance & Public Affairs Director.

Currently, Gabriella Porcelli is Chief Legal & Compliance Officer and Head of Corporate Governance at Iveco Group.
